BALKANISTICA 8
A JOURNAL OF SOUTHEAST EUROPEAN STUDIES
1992

◆ Publication Information: Editor John D. Treadway, Former Editors Frederick B. Chary, Kenneth E. Naylor. Published for the American Association for South Slavic Studies by the Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures of Indiana University.

◆ Commentary: Subtitled "Bulgaria Past and Present," this volume of Balkanistica was published as volume 6 of Indiana Slavic Studies in volume 44 of Indiana University's Russian and East European series. This volume was "a long time in the making." It represented a transitional phase in the publication history of Balkanistica. No fewer than three editors worked toward its publication, as the editorial, philosophical, scholarly and indeed financial support for the near-twenty-year-old journal wavered. Many of the volume's papers were originally presented at the 1982 Boston meeting of American and Bulgarian scholars. The volume contains dedications to former Balkanistica editor Kenneth Naylor of The Ohio State University and Michael Boro Petrovich of the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

(8-M1) In Memoriam: Michael Boro Petrovich, John R. Lampe (vii-xvii)

(8-M2) In Memoriam: Kenneth E. Naylor, Board of Regents, The Ohio State University, and Ronelle Alexander (xvii-xix).

BALKANISTICA 19

Special Edition: An Anthology of Bulgarian Literature

2006

◆ Publication Information: Editors Ivan Mladenov and Henry R. Cooper, Jr., General Editor Donald L. Dyer. Published for The South East European Studies Association (SEESA) by Keystone Digital Press.

◆ Commentary: This volume, at 333 pages, contains short biographies and works of thirty- nine authors. The volume was subsequently printed as a separate monograph by Slavica Publishers of Bloomington, Indiana. An interesting bit of trivia: This volume was printed with a pastel green cover and distributed as such, and three (yes, only three!) books with a white cover exist!
